Prohibition Is Issue In Primary Election In Atlantic States

Primary Today Will Test LaFollette Power In Wisconsin—New York State and Massachusetts Hold Primaries.

(By The Associated Press)

Voters in New York, Massachusetts and Wisconsin today are choosing party candidates for November's election, with the number of ballots cast sharing interest nationally with the issues and personalities involved. In Wisconsin, the power of the LaFollette brothers and hotly contested economic issues hold the spotlight. In two eastern states, prohibition is a major issue in a number of the congressional primaries.

Except for a few state conventions and run-off primaries, today's outcome closes the Democratic and Republican lists of 1932 candidates.

Bitter Contest

Governor Philip LaFollette of Wisconsin is seeking renomination on the Republican ticket in a strenuously fought campaign against former Governor Walter J. Kohler. Tax policies are prominent in the contest.

Supported by the LaFollette faction, Senator John J. Blaine is standing for the Republican senatorial nomination against John B. Chapple, Ashtabed editor, who has charged Blaine with radicalism. F. Ryan Duffy is unopposed as the Democratic senatorial choice, but three are seeking the party's gubernatorial nomination.

New York's senatorial and gubernatorial candidates will be selected by October party conventions, but 17 of 45 seats in the next house are at issue today.

Eight Districts

Massachusetts is deciding contests in eight congressional districts. The state's Democrats are renominating Governor Joseph B. Ely without opposition, while Lieutenant Governor William S. Youngman has three opponents in his fight for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Prominent among eastern congressional races are contests for renomination by Representative Robert L. Davenport, in New York's Thirtieth district. Both are Republicans.

Lace, standing on his party's national prohibition plank, is opposed by a Republican, and Davenport, a prohibitionist, is opposed by an anti-prohibitionist.

Former Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., a Republican, is without opposition for the Republican nomination for the House in the Thirty-ninth New York district.

Michigan Editors See Hoover Victory

Washington, Sept. 20 (AP)—Confidence that Michigan voters will "overwhelmingly" endorse administration policies was the expressed view today of 17 of the state's newspaper editors after a conference with President Hoover.

This statement was issued on behalf of the visiting editors by George R. Averill, editor of the Birmingham (Mich.) Eclectic, and said:

"We have had a discussion with the President of the social, political and economic problems of the United States and the world and we are going home cheerful as to the outcome. We are confident that Michigan will vote overwhelmingly for continuation of President Hoover's policies."

Besides the editors, those present at the conference included Secretary of Commerce C. M. Clegg, Secretary of the Treasury, and Theodore Joslin, presidential secretary.

Earlier in the day, the editors were guests of the Republican National Committee at luncheon and of Senator Vandenberg at dinner. They were addressed briefly by Chapin and Heath.

Plan "Hoover Day" Here October 7

October 7 will be observed by the Republican women of each county in the state as "Hoover Day."

The object of this day is to create Hoover sentiment and to help raise the campaign fund, by means of card parties, cake sales and teas, the proceeds to be divided equally between the county and state funds.

The state chairman is Miss Jane H. Todd of Westchester county. A large number of tickets have been distributed to the committee women of this county, who have charge in the various townships.

In Kingston there is to be a large card party at the Governor Clinton Hotel, and Saugerties is arranging for the village and the outlying districts.

At 8:30 p. m. October 7, there is to be a state radio address and all Republican women are requested to tune in, according to the committee.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Sept. 20 (AP)—Treasury receipts for September 17 were $22,159,322.73; expenditures, $29,124,672.72; balance $598,645,641.55. Customs duties for 17 days of September were $12,797,627.22.

Negro Who Annoyed Kidnap Band Sends Girl Sent To Jail Boy Back To Parents After Asking Ransom

Followed White Girl on Street—Admitted for 30 Days—Negro Arrested on Charge of Luring Off Street—Parman to Take a Girl With Her—Other Cases.

"How would you like to take a stroll with me?" inquired a young negro, or words to that effect, according to Officer Parman who promptly placed her under arrest on a charge of vagrancy Monday night. This morning the negro, Tessa Davis, entered a plea of not guilty, and the hearing was adjourned to next Tuesday.

Richard F. Smith, a negro of Murray street, arrested on a charge of following and annoying a young white girl, this morning in police court changed his former plea of not guilty to one of guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in jail. According to the story of the young girl, who is 16, she had left her home to go to the store for her mother and as she stepped off the porch of her home the negro followed her and drew a jack-knife.

Didn't Want to Stay

George Heldon of First avenue, arrested Sunday on a charge of public intoxication, changed his former plea of not guilty to one of guilty and received a suspended jail sentence of five days.

George evidently did not understand that he would not have to serve the jail sentence if he behaved himself and resumed his former seat in the prisoners' row in police court. He sat there for some time until Sergeant Phinney notified him sitting there walked over and asked "Did you want to stay, George?"

"You bet your life I don't," replied Heldon in fervent tones, as he hastily arose and hurriedly left the court room.

Other Police Cases

Peter Bettenhausen of Hurley, arrested on a charge of using wrong license plates on his car, pleaded guilty and was fined $5. He was arrested following a collision between his car and one driven by Albert J. Marks of Harwich street at Albany and Foxhall avenues on Sunday evening in which John Fatum of Washington avenue, who was riding with Bettenhausen, was badly cut about the head.

Mrs. Anna Kearney of 573 Albany avenue, arrested by Peter Eckert on a charge of using wrong license plates on her car, was fined $2.

Henry Kiernan and William Duffy, both arrested on the Strand on charges of public intoxication, had their hearings adjourned to Wednesday in police court.

Suspend Sentences In County Court

There were no civil cases ready for trial Monday afternoon in county court and the jurors were excused until this morning at 10 o'clock. The day calendar as made up Monday afternoon was:

No. 24, 9, 21, 28, 16, 53.

Assistant District Attorney J. Edward Conway presented several criminal matters to the court for disposition, the cases being of those which had been adjourned from prior sessions to the present term. In the case of Robert Cashion a further postponement of sentence was taken until the January term. Judge Shufeldt appeared for defendant. Judge Travis directed the defendant to continue to report to Probation Officer Service.

William F. Stenson, another adjourned matter, was moved and Judge Travis sentenced defendant to three months in the county jail and suspended execution of sentence pending continued good behavior. Francis T. Murray appeared for the defendant. Stenson will continue to report to Mr. Service.

Raymond Mitchell and Raymond Lang, represented by F. T. Murray, were directed to continue to report to Probation Officer Service and to report back to the court on January 2 at 2 o'clock. At that time sentence imposed will depend on the reports received by the probation officer.

John Stephens was sentenced to Elmira reformatory and execution of sentence was suspended until January 9 at 2 o'clock and the action by the court at that time will depend on the recommendation made at that time by Mr. Service.

The cases of Henry Myers, Leon and Cecora and Edwin Lindhurst were postponed until September 29 at 2 o'clock. These three cases are all involving parole and they will continue to report to the probation officer.

HILLING GIVES UP PLAN TO FLY ATLANTIC NOW

Liberty, N. Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—Otto Hilling has abandoned for this year his plan to fly to Greece, because he wishes to "cooperate" with the Federal government.

Although their plane was in readiness and their lunch basket partly filled, Hilling and his pilot, Roger Q. Williams, decided at the last minute last night not to attempt the flight which they had expected to undertake this week.

Hilling said Williams flew to Liberty during the day bringing permission from the Department of Commerce to make the flight, but also bringing an urgent request from the government not to attempt to cross the Atlantic in a plane this late in the season.

New York, Sept. 20 (AP)—A kidnap band which restored eight-year-old John Arthur Russell to his wealthy father when the police hunt became too hot was sought throughout New York and many parts of the east today.

Stolen and held for $25,000 ransom, the boy was returned mysteriously late last night to the Brooklyn home of his father, Arthur S. Russell, stock exchange broker. Police announced no ransom was paid and that they believed the kidnapers had been frightened by an intense search. Young Russell was so tired when he got home that police refrained from questioning him extensively until today. On his way home from school yesterday, he said, two men stopped him, took him for an auto ride and then to a small flat, where they gave him sandwiches, milk and a picture book.

In the evening, he said, a woman and another man came in, and the woman took him by automobile to a street car, gave the conductor a nickel and asked him to let the boy off near his home. Three telephone operators saw him get off the car, recognized him from his picture in a newspaper and took him home.

While the boy was missing, two telephone calls were received at the Russell home demanding $25,000 for the boy's safe return. Detectives expressed the belief the kidnapers were "amateurs." The police were intensely interested when the boy told them he believed he had seen one of his captors somewhere before.

WRECK DELAYS ROOSEVELT'S PROGRESS TO COAST

Aboard Roosevelt Special, Sept. 20 (AP)—Delayed four hours at Bonner, Mont., by the derailment of the crack north coast limited of the Northern Pacific, Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic presidential nominee, today was in Washington for an all day lay-over at Seattle.

After hurried repair work, the special crept slowly past the scene of the wreck. The derailed engine and the two cars leaned so far over toward the coaches as they passed.

Despite the long delay and drizzling rain a huge crowd swarmed about the station at Missoula. Many umbrellas were in evidence as the crowd shoved toward the rear end of the car where Mr. Roosevelt was introduced by J. Bruce Kremer, national committeeman from Montana. "It takes more than a mere derailment to stop our train," he said. "I appreciate your gathering here after an earlier disappointment. We just want to say 'Howdy'."

FLYNN AGAINST WATERWAY PROJECT

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—William J. Flynn, vice chairman of the Albany Port District Commission, in an address today before the New York State Waterways Association, said neither cheap electricity nor economical transportation could be expected from the St. Lawrence river.

Flynn's address opened direct discussion of the St. Lawrence power and canalization project, which the waterways body is fighting.

Flynn said the St. Lawrence project called for the expenditure of hundreds of millions, possibly billions of dollars for a seaway 90 percent of whose channel and whose terminal lay within a foreign country. He said the St. Lawrence would provide a seaway for seven months a year at the longest and that during this period it would work hardship on the railroads which were expected to furnish transportation the rest of the time.

FLYNN WILL MARRY CLARKE'S SWEETHEART

Miami, Fla., Sept. 20 (AP)—James J. Forrester of the Federal Labor Department said today he had learned that Capt. William N. Lancaster, British war flier recently acquitted of a murder charge in connection with death of Haden Clarke, plans to marry Mrs. Jessie M. Keith-Willier, Clarke's sweetheart. "I intend to marry Mrs. Keith-Willier whether she wants to or not," Forrester said the British flier declared. Forrester conducted Labor Department deportations hearing for both.

WHITNEY FOR IMMEDIATE PAYMENT OF BONDS

Garden City, N. Y., Sept. 20 (AP)—Cornellia Whitney, Democratic candidate for the House seat now held by his personal friend, Robert L. Bacon, today urged immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus, taking a view directly opposite to that of Bacon, who is seeking re-election.

Leaps to Her Death

Hollywood, Sept. 20 (AP)—It might be a different story if Peg Entwistle, once a well known New York actress, had been a success in Hollywood. But Peg Entwistle was not a success. Police listed her today as a suicide at the age of 24 years. Some time during the week-end Mrs. Entwistle had climbed to the highest spot in the Hollywood Hills and leaped to her death from the top of a high electrical sign.

Local Police Give $404 To Aid Children Invent Device To Be Used On Wooden Beds

The following communication was received by Mayor Eugene R. Carey from Peter Kerresman, president of Kingston Patrolmen's Association.

September 19, 1932
Hon. Eugene R. Carey, Mayor,
City of Kingston, N. Y.
Dear Mr. Mayor:

I take pleasure in handing you herewith check for $404.00 representing contributions of the Kingston Patrolmen's Association and members of the Police Department to the Volunteer Aid Committee fund. I attach a list of contributors from which you will note that all members of the department contributed except one member of the force.

The protection of our children is one of the many responsibilities of a policeman. It is one of our prime responsibilities. We therefore consider it a privilege to have been able to contribute our share to the fund which is to be used to feed and clothe those of our children who are now, or will be later, innocent sufferers by reason of the distressing times through which we are passing. We sincerely hope that sufficient funds will soon be on hand to insure proper food and clothing for every child in our community.

In order to further augment the growing total of the fund, the baseball team of the Kingston Police will play a ball game with the Newburgh Police, under the auspices of the local Volunteer Aid Committee. The entire proceeds of which will be donated to the fund. The game will be held at the Kingston Fair Grounds on Monday afternoon, September 26. I am confident that this benefit game will receive the same generous support from our citizens that has been characteristic of them in the past and that an additional substantial amount will be realized for this good cause.

Yours truly,
PETER KERRESMAN,
President Kingston
Patrolmen's Association.

Ulster Holstein Club Sale Oct. 7

The third annual sale conducted by the Ulster County Holstein Club will take place Friday, October 7, starting at 1 p. m., at the Melvin Richard's farm three miles west of New Paltz. Fifty head of registered Holsteins will be offered for sale. Col. George W. Baxter of Elmira will be the auctioneer.

The quality of the cattle will be still better than offered during the past two years. All the mature cows will have Dairy Improvement Association records ranging up to over 20,000 pounds of milk and over 700 pounds of fat. Several good bulls will be offered, some from dams with over 800 pounds of fat.

One aged bull will be offered for sale which headed the Ulster County herd that won first prize at the State Fair this year and took sixth place in the open class. Two of the cows used in the county herd will also be sold. One of the cows won the grand championship at the Orange County Fair this year. Many of the animals have been selected for type as well as production records.

One outstanding feature of the sale is that all animals will be from accredited herds and will have passed two negative tests for Bang abortion, the last within 20 days of the sale.

The sale is conducted by the Holstein Club through a sales committee composed of C. A. Stark of Stone Ridge as chairman, Edward Davenport and John Schoonmaker of Accord. Every effort is made to secure the best cattle available in the county for the sale, thereby favorably advertising Ulster county cattle. The committee inspects and passes on each animal before it can be consigned to the sale.

The roads leading to the sales barn will be well marked from New Paltz. Lunch will be available on the grounds and the cattle will be available for inspection in the forenoon. This will enable the sale to get underway promptly at 1 o'clock. B. H. Decker, manager of the Shawangunk Valley Stock farm and president of the club will read the pedigrees.

All dairymen are cordially invited to attend the sale. Quality cattle will be offered. Good females and good herd sires will be available, including several show animals. The cows will be fresh or nearly fresh. The variety and quality offered will fill the needs of any dairymen interested in securing some high grade Holstein cattle.

Primary Day Polls Open At Noon

Today is Primary Day in Kingston and the various polling places in the city open at noon and will remain open until 5 o'clock this evening. The only contest is that for the nomination for Congress on the Republican ticket. It was expected that a heavy vote would be cast owing to the contest.

Our Growing Population

The following births have been reported to the Board of Health:
Mr. and Mrs. Delmar C. Kelly of 23 Janet street, a son, Donald Kaempfer, at Kingston Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Imbilio of Port Ewen, a daughter, Jean Adelaide, at Kingston Hospital.

Kaplan and Meadows Remanded Two Men To Sheriff To Death" In Protest Of Vote Settlement

An invention of Samuel S. Kaplan and Amos A. Meadows which has recently been placed on the market promises to meet with much success. The device is a mailable iron adjustable bed spring rest for use on wooden beds to replace wood slats. It is known as the K & M adjustable bed spring rest and a patent has been applied for in both the United States and Canada.

The device is now being manufactured at Branford, Conn., and sets a week are being shipped to Kingston for distribution throughout the east. It is the intent of the K & M Adjustable Bed Spring Rest Company to have the device manufactured locally. The company owns its own patterns and moulds for the manufacture.

Although the bed spring rest has been on the market but a short time it is being adopted by many concerns and already several large manufacturers have negotiated for its use.

Rest Is Adjustable

Not only does the device eliminate the dusty, unsightly wood slats but is adjustable to three different positions and may also be adjusted to an angle of 45 degrees for use as a hospital bed. This simple invention eliminates the use of wood slats with their constant breaking and falling out and also prevents springs from slipping and sliding out of place. The rest is applied directly to the rails of wooden beds and the adjustment to different heights is a very simple matter.

Mr. Kaplan and Mr. Meadows have both been associated with the furniture business for many years and have practical knowledge of the need for such a device. Mr. Kaplan has been associated with his father, Morris Kaplan, North Front street furniture dealer, for years and Mr. Meadows is an expert wood worker, having been employed at the Sehlberg Furniture factory and prior to that in the large factories at Grand Rapids, Michigan, where he was at one time employed by the Johnston Furniture Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Meadows is now in Grand Rapids in the interest of the company and has already interested one of the large manufacturers in the use of the invention. The Irwin Manufacturing Company of Grand Rapids is now installing the K & M rests on their high grade beds and several other bed manufacturers in the south and west have adopted the device. The K & M bed spring rest can be applied to any wooden bed and many leading furniture dealers are selling and installing the rests on the beds they sell.

Will Supply Hotel

Among the latest orders for the K & M bed spring rests is that of the Edison Hotel in New York city. All beds in the hotel will be equipped.

Locally the rests are being sold and installed by Rose & Gorman, Stock & Corbitts, M. Kaplan, Kaplan Furniture Company, S. L. Torrey and other local firms. Not only will these firms install the rests on new beds but they will the device for installation on beds already in use. In Poughkeepsie, Luckey, Platt & Company sell the rests and are installing it on their new merchandise. In Newburgh Barnett & Buck, Burcher's, Krell's Furniture Company sell it. The larger firms in Danbury, New Haven, Hartford and other eastern cities have taken on the line as well as the Warren Furniture Company at Warren, Pa.

The invention is moderate in cost either as original equipment on wooden beds or as replacement of wood slats and promises to fill a long sought need of wood bed manufacturers.

WESTON WILL SPEAK OVER RADIO FRIDAY

General Lejane Injured In Fall

Lexington, Va., Sept. 20 (AP)—Major General John A. Lejane, superintendent of Virginia Military Institute, was in a serious condition today, after a fall down an embankment on the campus. His skull was fractured and his left arm broken. An operation was performed last night by Dr. C. C. O'Connell of Richmond, a brain specialist.

Judge John T. Loughran has dismissed writs of habeas corpus and remanded both relatives to the custody of the sheriff in the matter of The People ex rel. Jacob Kravet and Morris Kravet, relatives against Wright J. Smith, sheriff of Ulster county. Application for release from custody made under writ of habeas corpus was made at special term of supreme court before Judge Loughran. Philip Sturck appeared for the relatives and Arthur H. Egan appeared for respondent, Sheriff Smith.

The action grew out of an alleged contempt of court proceeding which resulted in the two men, who reside near Ellenville, being brought to the county jail. Originally a judgment was found in justice's court growing out of a note action. By filing a transcript of judgment the judgment became the judgment of county court. That court directed them to appear before the Ulster county court at a special term on February 3, 1931, there to be examined in supplementary proceedings. They failed to appear and it appears that the names of the two men had become transposed in the papers so that the names appear as "Morris" Kravet and "Jacob" Kravet. In addition they allege that they are not the men sought in the action and there is some denial of the making of the notes out of which the original action grew.

In his opinion Judge Loughran in dismissing the writs says that the relatives are in custody under a commitment commanding attachment of "the persons of Morris Kravet and Jacob Kravet. The commitment recites that Morris Kravet and Jacob Kravet, defendants, are guilty of contempt of court in having wilfully disobeyed the order of the county court, Ulster county, directing them to appear at special term of said court on the 3rd day of February, 1931, there to be examined in supplementary proceedings. It is conceded that such proceedings were supplemental to execution upon the judgment in an action against Morris Kravet and Jacob Kravet."

The court holds that both were served and although an error may have been made in preparing the papers and the names thereby become transposed that the service on the two men was such that they should have answered to the court.

Both writs are dismissed and the two, who are now on parole in the custody of their counsel, are remanded to the sheriff.

Auto Accident Case In County Court

An action for personal injuries was taken up in county court this morning. Harry Wasserman of Brooklyn seeks to recover damages from Abraham Hayden of Kerkonkson for injuries which he alleges he suffered on August 2, 1931, when he fell from a truck operated by Mr. Mayden's son.

Plaintiff alleges that he was a guest at the Hayden boarding house near Kerkonkson and that on the day of the accident he was invited to ride with young Hayden to Kerkonkson where several of the guests desired to go to purchase cards for a card game. Plaintiff testified that he found no place on the truck to ride except on the rear and was assured by the defendant's son that that was a safe place to sit. The tail-board of the light truck was down and Wasserman seated himself on the tail-board. On the way the truck, which he alleges was driven by a fast rate, struck a bump and the chain holding the tail-board either unfastened or broke and he fell to the ground and was injured. Another guest also fell from the truck at the same time. Wasserman testified he had shouted to young Hayden to stop just prior to the accident.

The defendant, Abraham Hayden, denies any responsibility for the accident and alleges that his son was but 14 years old and had no authority to drive the truck and that he had repeatedly instructed his son not to take the truck on the road. He alleges that the truck was taken without his permission and that the son was not acting as his agent and that he is not responsible for the accident. He claims several of the guests who desired to play cards urged the son to take the car and drive them to the village for cards and that the act was in disobedience with his instructions to the son.

Joseph Kniggebaum appears for plaintiff and Andrew J. Cook for defendant. Jurors not engaged on the case were excused until Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Ran Over by Automobile

Saugerties, Sept. 20 (AP)—Warren Shackett, of Market street, well known baseball player, was run over by an automobile Sunday following the baseball game on the local field. Mr. Shackett was returning in a car started, when he fell and the wheels of the car passed over his left leg. He escaped serious injury.

Dr. Morgan at Stone Ridge

Dr. John W. Morgan will speak, play and sing in the Stone Ridge M. E. Church Thursday evening, September 22. Dr. Morgan is in his tenth year with the Lord's Day Alliance and formerly associated with Chapman, Mitchell, Yelman, Underwood and Billy Sunday. He will play and sing his own productions, plaintiff-respondent.

Gandhi Begins "Fast To Death" In Protest Of Vote Settlement

Begin Starving Himself In Protest Against Mac Donald's Settlement of Indian Communal Election Problem.

Poona, India, Sept. 20 (AP)—Mahatma Gandhi, leader of millions of Indians people in the civil disobedience campaign against the British government, began at noon today the "fast unto death" which he announced last week as a protest against Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald's settlement of the Indian communal elections problem.

As he started his self-imposed starvation regime he was technical a free man. The government this morning let down the bars of his prison cell at Yeroda jail, where he has been a prisoner since January, but the Mahatma spurned the proffered freedom.

He said he would not leave his cell unless he were forcibly removed and the indications were the government would not remove him.

The ban against visitors at the jail was lifted this morning, but the newspapermen were still kept out by the jail authorities.

Hundreds of telegrams and letters from friends of the Mahatma, urging him to give up his proposed fast, were received at the jail and many Indian leaders added their efforts to dissuade him. He began preparing for the fast yesterday by cutting down on the amount of food taken at a meal and spacing the meals farther apart.

Many offers of a comfortable home for him during the fast also were received, including an invitation to live at the mission home for the depressed classes, but he refused them.

Gandhi is 62. Most of his life has been spent in turmoil. But in spite of it he has seemed to remain entirely calm.

By his closest followers and disciples, including Madeline Slade, the former London society belle and daughter of a British admiral who renounced everything to follow him, he is called "Bapu," which means father.

Riots Break Out

Almohaded, India, Sept. 20 (AP)—Riots broke out here today, as Mahatma Gandhi began his death fast in Yeroda jail at Poona. The trouble began over a proposal to open some of the Hindu temples to the "untouchables," whose voting privileges are the reason for Gandhi's fast of protest.

Police were called out to disperse an angry crowd of orthodox members of the Jains, a Hindu sect, who staged a demonstration outside one temple, pulling down an announcement that the lower classes would be admitted.

The Jains had set up a picket on the Temple Gates to prevent the untouchables from entering.

Volunteer Aid Meeting Tonight

THE PEKINGESE DUKE

CH'IN HU, A DOG, WAS CREATED A DUKE BY EMPEROR KAO WEI, OF CHINA, AND GIVEN AN INCOME FOR THE OFFICE...

When Robert Leonard took the empty chair beside her, Nan would have preferred a more conventional neighbor on her other side. In desperation she leaned towards her host and said:

"Mrs. Tetterley said you used to know my father's people."

He nodded and said:

"Long ago."

"When you tell me about them?"

They quarrelled with him about his marriage, and I've never seen any of them."

"Haven't seen them for years," said he. "Twenty years. Used to stay there when I was a young fellow—very kind to me and all that."

"My father had a sister," said Nan. "I'm called after her."

"Yes," said Mr. Tetterley. "That's why I thought you belonged to the family. She wasn't Anne, you know; she was Nan—christened Nan."

"So am I," said Nan. "Am I like her?"

"Yes," said George Tetterley. "Very. His face and his voice were quite expressionless."

"Do tell me about her. Is she alive?"

He shook his head.

"Did she marry?"

"Yes—quite a good chap."

From the other side of the table came Ferdinand's voice:

"When I was in Mexico in '04..."

He proceeded to tell a lively story of an encounter with a guerrilla band. The name of Pedro Ramirez emerged from it. It appeared that Ferdinand had been uncommonly lucky to have escaped the undesired role of providing entertainment for a temporarily idle band. "They'd got a really high-class show all fixed up with me for the star performer. There was a Maseppa turn, with me for Maseppa, and the worst-tempered broncho in the bunch for the Wild Horse of the Ukraine."

"Did you do Maseppa?" interrupted Janet Tetterley.

"Well," said Ferdinand, ignoring her, "this is a very instructive tale—one of the mother's-knee kind, on the text of 'If you do a good turn, it'll come back to roost: I'd done my good turn eight years before and forgotten all about it. I'm not going to tell you what it was, because I've got a modest disposition, but just when those bright boys were going to get going with their quick-shooters, that good turn came home to roost."

"You're not telling us how you got away," said Mrs. Tetterley.

"Pardon me, Mrs. Tetterley, that is what I am doing." He paused and looked around the table.

George was smiling; Rosamund, Carew lighting a cigarette with an air of calm detachment; Janet, just Janet; Janet Tetterley faintly burst at the digression: Robert Leonard in the act of lifting a tumbler to his lips; and Nan an eager child waiting for the end of the story.

"My 'good turn' was a man called Hermann Eleuthert."

Robert Leonard's glass continued its upward way. He drank as if he was thirsty and set it down.

Ferdinand was looking at Janet Tetterley. But those glancing eyes of his certainly had the faculty of being able to see two things at once. He had most certainly seen the knuckles whiten on Robert Leonard's broad red hand. Ferdinand judged that the glass it was holding had missed becoming a casualty by a fairly narrow margin. He smiled his story.

"Hermann Eleuthert remembered the good turn which F. F. had forgotten. He had the guerrilla chief in his pocket. And if you've ever been all trussed up and ready to take the floor as a high-class target you'll know just how glad I was to see Hermann. I tell you he'd got Pedro Ramirez sitting out of his hand. Well, I've often thought it would be interesting to know what the bait was."

Ferdinand's bright brown eyes went past Robert Leonard to Nan. Perhaps they were looking for something as they passed. Perhaps they found what they were looking for.

"Your husband wasn't with me that time, Mrs. Tetterley," he said. "I'd have put the whole thing down to his luck. He's the sort that falls on his feet, you know."

HEART DISEASE CHANCES.

A member of your family or one of your friends has been told by his physician—by more than one physician in fact—that he has heart disease. You may be wondering just what an individual afflicted with heart disease can expect in so far as his health, and his length of life, are concerned.

In what way can a physician determine or decide just what may be expected in any case?

This is usually decided by learning the cause of the heart disease whether it was caused by rheumatism, St. Vitus Dance, or scarlet fever on the one hand, which usually occur in early life, or from other conditions which do not as a rule appear until middle age.

Speaking generally, Dr. R. O. Moore, London, England, says the chance for good health and life itself is more favorable in the rheumatic cases, in which the condition is apt to become stationary—making no progress—than in the conditions which cause the trouble later in life: in very young children however, although the disease is usually due to rheumatism, the outlook is generally serious, because the covering of the heart, the heart muscle itself, and the lining of the heart are all affected.

In nearly all cases of heart disease, heredity and the family history are important guides as to what may be expected, as there are some families in which the heart muscle begins to fail at middle age without any definite disease causing this failure. The age, temperament, nutrition—thin or overweight—are all taken into account in estimating the chances of health and life itself. The habits and mode of living of the patient are important factors. Much will depend upon how far suitable treatment can be carried out in the way of preventing any further strain or infection, and moderation with regard to alcohol, tobacco, strong tea and coffee, and the possibility of giving up hard work.

The point then is that generally speaking heart disease occurring in young people is more apt to remain at a certain point so that the patient knows just exactly what he can and cannot do, and can govern himself accordingly.

Heart disease coming on in middle life, particularly when the patient comes from a family in which heart disease is common, is more likely to progress or grow gradually worse. This means that strict care is necessary to ensure health, and prolong life.

STONE RIDGE GRANGE OBSERVES 30TH BIRTHDAY

On Thursday evening, Sept. 15, Stone Ridge Grange, No. 331, celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of its organization with an evening of such pleasure and interest as will long be remembered by those who attended.

A gathering of 124 members first enjoyed an excellent Virginia ham supper served at the Reformed Church. Later the regular meeting was held at the Grange Hall during which the history and record of Stone Ridge Grange was reviewed and proper ceremonial honors paid to the 9 surviving charter members of the order, and to the 12 silver star members who have had 25 or more years of continuous membership.

The guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Elizabeth A. Arthur of Louisville, N. Y., worthy lecturer of New York State Grange. In her address, which was most eloquent and well received, Mrs. Arthur said that the history of organizations as well as of individuals were always suggestive of the lighting of candles, and that the record which the Grange has made in making it one of the best lighting in communities all over America the Grange has, for the past 70 years, been lighting candles of good citizenship, conduct of cooperative effort, conduct of education, of enlightenment, of enlightenment.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hulstair celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in Savhill on Saturday, September 17.

Mrs. Hulstair was Frances Brink, daughter of Henry and Sally Brink, and was born in Savhill in 1844.

Mr. Hulstair was born in Savhill, also, in 1842. They were married by the Rev. C. W. Camp, rector of St. John's Church, Kingston, and have made their home in Savhill for the entire 50 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hulstair are both in good health and take an active part in the affairs of the community. They have eight children and 16 grandchildren living.

The happy occasion was fittingly observed by a family reunion. There were 26 present at the dinner.

The decorations were gold and white and the beautiful wedding cake graced the center of the table. This was a fruit cake weighing 20 pounds and trimmed with a border of gold roses and tiny gold leaves, while the center had the words "50th Anniversary" in gold letters.

A trumpet holding a silver and roses curved gracefully about the lettering. All present admired the beauty of the cake and its serving was an appropriate close to the celebration.

A substantial sum in gold besides other gifts were presented to the bride and groom of 50 years ago. A number of cards were received also. During the evening friends and neighbors came in, making a gathering of 75 people to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Hulstair.

Music and dancing were enjoyed and a buffet supper served. Guests were present from Brooklyn, Yonkers, New Jersey, New Rochelle, Kingston and Savhill. All enjoyed the evening and wished Mr. and Mrs. Hulstair many more happy years together.

Drum Corps Contest Held In Highland

Highland, Sept. 20.—Saturday afternoon with ideal weather conditions, the drum corps contest and band day was held under the auspices of the 156th Regiment, P.M., Drum and Bugle Corps of Highland, on the P.M. athletic field in the rear of Highland High School. It was a great event in the experience of the drum corps and one for which they deserve well merited praise for the manner in which each minute detail was carried out. The band or more exactly scattered about on the sidehills made an impressive sight together with the various uniforms of the musicians.

In the drawing for order of appearance on the program, Port Ewen drew No. 1. Following a rigid inspection, they gave a special fancy drill of a half hour duration which brought forth applause from the audience and the blowing of the bugles or more cars for which they had been provided so that those in the cars could witness the proceedings. The outfits of the Port Ewen corps are royal blue trousers and cape with maroon jacket trimmed with gold. The leader wore white trousers with maroon coat trimmed with white and gold. There were 25 men in the outfit.

Peekskill was second to perform. Their suits were bright blue with grey trousers trimmed in white and gold. A special feature was a huge American flag borne by a flag bearer. This corps numbered 15 men.

Young America of Poughkeepsie with 25 men, made an attractive appearance on the field with their West Point uniforms.

The combination corps from Victory Engine Company, Newburgh, with 15 men, were exceptionally good. The drum major wore a white outfit trimmed in red and gold with a white fur shako, same trimming. The men wore navy blue outfits trimmed with gold with caps to match. The lyre player deserves special mention.

In the Junior contests, the 4-H Club of Rock School, Rifton, with 33 boys and girls, were first. The boys wore olive green khaki uniforms with dark toques, the girls brown khaki dresses, cape effect, lined with gold. Banner bearers were dressed in light green. The 4-H clover insignia was on the sleeves of the uniforms.

Next was the Junior American Legion corps of Walden. Frank Veber, drum major, drew forth exclamations of delight and admiration with his efficient handling of the baton and carriage. He wore dark blue trousers, white silk shirt and white velvet toque. The corps wore white suits with green velvet toques. There were 23 boys.

The Boy Rangers of E. F. Dunne Post, American Legion, Cohoes, were acclaimed by the inspection judges to be the nicest outfit in the contest, including the seniors. They numbered 24. The inspector said he never saw instruments in such excellent shape. He said the boys must have sat up all night polishing the horns. Two flagbearers preceded the line, one carrying the American flag, the other the Ranger flag of navy blue and gold. The boys wore white suits, blue ties and overseas caps of blue. The leader was in white.

Mr. Colson, drum major of the Port Dodge Drum Corps of Iowa, was present and assisted the judges. The Port Dodge Corps is winner of the national prize and took fourth place in the international contest in Paris. Watson Elting of the Port Landerale-Miami corps was also present. Frank Sae of Kingston also assisted in judging. The regular judges were Louis Hausenbittel, Poughkeepsie, for maneuvers; Edward Lendke, of Kingston, former lieutenant in the army, inspection; Harry E. Grant, Highland, and Robert Miller, Middleburgh, music.

Prizes in the senior corps were awarded as follows: First, drum and bugle, Port Ewen first with 65% points out of a possible 100; Young America, second with 62%; P.M. and Drum, Peekskill drum corps, third; combination corps, Newburgh drum corps.

Class E fancy drill work, Port Ewen, first; Peekskill second, largest corps present; Port Ewen with 25 men; corps coming the longest distance, Peekskill; general appearance, Port Ewen.

In the Junior group, the Boy Rangers of Cohoes were awarded first place with 87% and American Legion, Walden, second with 75% points; P.M. and Bugle Corps, with Walden, second; fancy drill work, Cohoes first, Walden second; largest Junior corps, 4-H Club of Rifton with 33; corps coming the longest distance, Cohoes; award for the best general appearance of outfits and instruments, Cohoes.

In the individual contests for the senior drum, contestants were James Delamater and E. L. Langer of Peekskill, John Emmett of Port Ewen; prizes awarded Delamater and Langer for seniors; Junior contestants, Robert Houghbaling, Clifford Conklin, Norman John, Walden; Nathaniel Phillips, Robert Aronson, Rifton; Harry Dwyer and George Taylor, Cohoes; won by Norman Ackert, Walden; first, Robert Houghbaling, Walden, second.

Baton swinging, W. Callahan, Peekskill, prize; John Resmba, Cohoes; George Mason, Walden, for Juniors. Prize awarded Mason first, Resmba, second.

Prize for the best appearing drum major was given Mr. Albrecht of Young America, Poughkeepsie; L. M. Gilbert, of Peekskill corps, second.

Caps for the senior corps were awarded by George Yeager, one of the candidates for Congress on the Republican ticket; Walter Hasbrouck awarded the Junior caps; Daniel H. Starr, Highland, made the presentation speech to Betty Palmatier, who won a diamond ring in the most popular girl contest. William Lala won the $10 in gold.

Radio Ralph of Poughkeepsie with the use of amplifiers and the loud speakers back of the judges stand added much to the pleasure of the occasion for the audience. The announcements were clearly heard on the side hills.

A clown from Mount Kisco hired for the occasion afforded laughs during the course of the afternoon.

Louis Palmer, leader of Highland corps, was general chairman of arrangements and deserves much credit for putting such a big affair over in the fine manner in which it was handled. Lieutenant Lendke said he had been to numerous contests, state and national, and had not seen any of them handled as smoothly.

Following the maneuvers, the corps massed the instruments, all effects, etc., assembled together and paraded through the village over Church street, to the monument down White street to Main and up Main to the lawn of the First Methodist Church where cider, crullers, sandwiches and apples were served in charge of Mrs. Louis Palmer, Mrs. Richard Barton, Mrs. Edward Hubbard and assistants.

Members of the 156th Regiment, P.M. and Bugle Corps wish to extend their thanks and appreciation to the judges: George Muller for the street banner and all who in any way assisted toward the success of the field day.

John T. Gillette, superintendent of the schools in this district, was called on and remarked that the 4-H corps of Rifton was the product of a one-room school and he praised the teacher for her untiring efforts in accomplishing so much with the children. Mrs. Florence Cotant had charge of publicity.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Has
"Bulk" and Vitamin B;
Also Healthful Iron

By using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, millions of people have overcome common constipation, and the headaches, loss of appetite and energy that so frequently result.

New laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN supplies two things needed to overcome temporary and recurring constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines, Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently it clears the intestines of wastes.

Further experiments prove ALL-BRAN provides twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Eat this delicious cereal and avoid pills and drugs. They cause artificial action, and often lead to harmful habits.

Try two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily—sufficient to overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN has a delicious, nut-sweet flavor. Enjoy as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in making fluffy bran muffins, breads, omelets, etc. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By the Associated Press.)
Copenhagen.—A deep-sea diver stabbed his leg on a cannon ball on the ocean floor near the Cattedra. He looked around and found the Danish warship Prins Christian Friedrich, sunk by English men of war 120 years ago. One of the English shots, perhaps the very one the diver tripped on, blew the Danish commander's head off.

Hartford, Conn.—Kind to baby lobsters in the state of Connecticut, which hates to see big bulky fish gobble them before they get their growth. During their youth lobsters float near the surface of the water, and are pte for certain fish. Experimenting at the Noah's hatchery with special diving compartments, the state has reared lobsters so that they dive when they are only 35 days old.

Stockholm, Sweden.—Peas with a strange pedigree are the proud boast of a gentleman at Ronneby. A Danish professor who helped excavate the tomb of King Tutankhamen brought home a few peas which rested 3,000 years in the tomb. They were planted, and their possessor said they yielded a crop of 202 peas.

New York.—It took six patrolmen and a sergeant to move Mrs. May Manning, 49, from the Bushwick to the Kings County Hospital. Mrs. Manning, who weighs more than 400 pounds, lay on the mattress of her sick bed as the policemen carried her down and up six flights of stairs.

Bradenton, Fla.—A huge horde of frogs hopping in the general direction of the Gulf of Mexico has local folk puzzled. For a half mile the ground is covered with the little creatures that are brown in color like toads but have long hind legs like bullfrogs. No one seems to know whence they came.

PLAN ACTIVITIES FOR REDEEMER LUTHERANS

The officers and teachers of the Sunday Bible school of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will hold a meeting Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Plans for the fall will be discussed. The devotional committee of the Senior Luther League will meet following the teachers' meeting Tuesday evening to plan the devotional program for the coming months. The first devotional service in the nature of a Fellowship Hour commencing at 5 p. m., will be held October 2. Nineteen members of the league after the morning service Sunday journeyed to New York City to visit some of the large churches there, including the Riverside Church and the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

The weekday school will meet Thursday at 4 p. m. The scholars will continue their work on the scrap books being made for the Children's Ward of the Kingston Hospital. The Confirmation class will meet Thursday at 4 p. m. and Friday at 3:45 p. m.

The second meeting of the recently organized Men's Brotherhood will be held Friday evening at eight o'clock to elect officers and receive the report of the committee on constitution. It is expected that another exciting dart baseball contest will be held.

We used to call it getting stuck in the mud, but now they call it beauty clay.

Tips on CONTRACT

CALLING THE RULE

By TOM O'NEIL.
Do you know when a player can be forbidden to bid in contract bridge or when one can be compelled to play his highest or lowest of a suit?

From Lieut. Alfred M. Gruenther, Jr., who has refereed at many large tournaments, comes an explanation of penalties for the most common violations of the rules.

Many players are unfamiliar with some rules and interpretations of them. Much of the lieutenant's time in tournaments is occupied with saying what is what.

Here are the most frequent violations of rules in social games:

1.—Forgetting which player is the declarer, the wrong person leads originally.

Declarer has a choice of penalties. He can treat the card led incorrectly as an exposed card and require the possessor to leave it exposed until declarer calls for it to be played. Declarer can make that card upon any subsequent trick provided the offender must follow suit when possible. Or declarer can require the player who should have led originally to lead a specified suit, any card of it the holder chooses. This is of great advantage if the declarer holds an ace-queen or other ten-ace.

2.—The declarer leads from dummy when he should have led from his own hand or vice versa.

Either opponent may require him to lead from the correct hand and the declarer wishes of the suit incorrectly led from the other hand. If there is no card of such a suit in the hand whence the lead should come, the declarer may lead as he wishes from the correct hand.

3.—A player fails to follow suit, then leads he has a card of the suit led and announces it in order to prevent a revoke with his two-trick penalty.

This is a renounce. The card incorrectly played by an adversary may be treated by the declarer as exposed. Declarer may call for it to be played upon a subsequent trick provided it can be played legally. Or the declarer may require the offending adversary to play his highest or lowest card of the suit led. A declarer who has renounced may be required to play his highest or lowest.

4.—A player bids or passes out of turn.

If he bids out of turn the bid is void, the auction begins correctly and the partner of the offender is barred from the contracting entirely. If a player passes out of turn, the auction proceeds correctly and the offender is barred from bidding until the original bid is overcalled or doubled.

5.—A player, exposing his hand before all the cards have been played, claims the rest of the tricks.

If declarer makes such a claim he may be required to play the hand out, leaving his cards exposed. He cannot take a finesse unless it is announced in advance or unless it is a proved finesse, that is that the player sitting over the finessed card already has shown out of the suit led. If playing from his own hand declarer may be required to trump in dummy when a higher card of a non-trump suit led from his hand is in the hand of either opponent.

If one of the defending side claims the rest of the tricks and exposes his hand, he can be subjected to the usual penalty for exposed cards, that is he may be required to play any specified card provided it can be done legally.

Stdney S. Lenz did that to Ely Culbertson in the great contract match. Culbertson thought he could take the rest of the tricks. Lenz had a club suit set up in dummy. He played them, and Culbertson had to drop the ace, king and queen of hearts, having no clubs.

HURLEY.

Hurley, Sept. 20.—Mrs. Harold Davis and two children and George Snyder of Olive Bridge called on Charles Snyder one day last week.

The Rev. Mr. Hunt of Kingston had charge of the church service on Sunday morning. Next Sunday the Rev. Mr. Thielpape will have charge of the service. All services will be back on standard time. Sunday school at 9:30. Divine worship at 10:30. Evening service, Christian Endeavor at 7:30.

Richard Hiller and family are spending a few days in town.

On Friday, September 20, the Ulster County Sunday School Association will hold its 71st convention at the Wallkill Reformed Church. Hurley is represented with two officers, they being L. C. Dixon as state representative and field secretary, and the Rev. C. Chilton, charge of week-day and vacation church schools. On Sunday morning one or two delegates will be appointed to attend the convention.

Miss Sarah Brink who is employed in the Kingston Trust Company, is spending her vacation at home.

Ralph Hiller is laying pipes to supply water up the Marbletown road as far as the Spiering home.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Burhans at Lake Katrine on Monday afternoon.

Tailets Defeated By Cravats, 3 to 0: Eliminated in Race

The Tailets' season of winning the second half of the City League was ended when they lost to the Cravats Monday evening. The Tailets not only blew their chance but also lost their series for the season with the Cravats, who were unable to defeat any other team in the league. And to make matters worse they had to suffer the humiliation of being shut out, 3 to 0.

Inability to hit the offerings of the Weidemanns' best pitcher, was the real reason for the Tailets' defeat. Three hits were all they could garner and two of these should have been turned into putouts.

Nick Huber opposed Weidemann and was pounded hard throughout the contest. He was nipped for nine hits and allowed most of them to be batted.

The Cravats' first run came in the second inning. Hank Krum singled to center field to start and Ditzik drew a walk. Turk planted a double in the left field and Krum and Ditzik registered.

In the fourth inning they scored their final run. Ditzik singled to left field. Weidemann reached first on Cassidy's error and Turk also singled. Bouchard punched another single through the infield and Ditzik carried home the run.

During the rally in the fourth inning Jimmy Turk distinguished himself by trying to steal third base with the sacks loaded. His attempt to keep the score low as it halted the rally.

Tulane Gridders Expert Tacklers

By Ralph Whipple.

New Orleans, Sept. 20 (AP).—A famous coach once said that a football team only is as strong as its tackle.

That being the case, Tulane should come through high in the southern conference this season as tackling is the thing it does best. Hard, low tackling is on the major curricula at Tulane and the tackling dummy has about been torn loose from its socket.

If you can't tackle don't take up and spare, is the edict of the coaches. That the drive toward conference glory furnished by sound tackling may be more than offset by the schedule, toughest in Tulane history. The green wave opens with Texas A. and M., then come Georgia, Vanderbilt, Auburn, South Carolina, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, Sewanee, and Louisiana State.

Ted Cox, head coach and successor to Bernie Bierman, holds the belief that psychology plays an important part in winning football games. He believes in the flying start to victory and for that reason is pointing strongly for the Texas A. and M. game, on the opinion that if his team wins its first game, it may be so buoyed that it may knock down the rest of their rivals.

The Team.
Take a look over the team and see what's there.

Ends—Unquestionably not as strong as last year but how can duplicates of Dalrymple and Haynes be found? Dick Harty of Hattiesburg, Miss., and Mito Phillips of New Orleans, have shaped well.

Tackles—Cunningham, Bankton and Bousberg, last year's letter men looking better than ever.

Guards—Scadde and Schroeder last year and George Tessier, Al Paddock and Homer Robertson in reserve.

Center—Lodriguez, 1921 star, John Reed, substitute.

The backfield does a coach's soul good.

Quarterback—Two men, Pat Richardson and John McDaniel, just a toss up between them, both good blockers, pass receivers and kickers. Richardson has the edge on experience from last year.

Halfbacks—Don Zimmerman, Francis Payne, Floyd Roberts and J. Hodges, all last year's lettermen and triple threats.

Fullbacks—Nollis (Papa) Felts, (captain), and Harold Lemon, line plungers, kickers and blockers. So the green wave is ready to roll for better or for worse. The question is can a team hold a championship stride of being undefeated since October, 1928, with a harder schedule, the loss of a head coach and two crack ends in one season.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

Sioux City, Ia.—Frankie Wolfgram, Winnipeg, outpointed Britt Gorman, Minneapolis, (10); Johnny Martin, Sioux Falls, outpointed Johnny Smogre, Omaha, (6).

Grand Slam Series!

THE STORY OF BABE RUTH, RECORD BREAKER

The season of 1932, most tortuous year of the great hitter's entire career, was over. He was well again, healed of the monumental "curse" that had almost ended his baseball days, each his life. He had made his peace with Miller Huggins after the temporary suspension, outburst following his suspension and $5,000 fine for "conduct unbecomingly of the field."

Ahead lay the rockiest of roads, the comeback trail. Not a man among the hundreds present knew whether the happy-go-lucky playboy of the diamond had the strength of character, the resolution, to turn his back on failure, the indulgence that had brought him down, and fight his way back.

For The Kids

Walker, brilliant orator, remarkable psychologist, trained his mightiest runs on the Hamilton's bowled head. He thundered, exhorted, pleaded. Almost as though he were alone with Ruth he made his final plea, one hand on the big fellow's hunched shoulders.

"For the dirty-faced kids in the street," Babe, "the kids you love you, kidize you, you can't fail."

Babe lifted wet eyes that night, mumbled his thanks and went home. His course might already have been set. Perhaps nothing could have stopped his thunderous charge back to the heights.

Biggest Comeback of All

Whatever his motivating power he came back at 32 with a rush no athlete in history ever has equalled. He hit .372 over the 1926 season, crashed 47 home runs, and drove the Yanks into the world's series with the Cardinals, his seventh, and the first of a string of three in the reign of one of the mightiest of all baseball aggregations.

He set eight individual world's series records in the seven game battle with the Cardinals that Grover Cleveland Alexander won by fanning Tony Lazzari with the bases full in the 7th after relieving Jess Haines. The series ended with him still trying—thrown out stealing second with the tying run and two gone in the ninth. He never let up from spring to fall.

He hit three home runs in the fourth game and scored four times. He scored the winning run in the first game, walked four times in the seventh game. He hit .300, walking 11 times, clouted four homers in the series.

He was roaring back up the comeback trail, his greatest feats still ahead.

in a world series. Then something pulled loose.

While the main show was going on at Wrigley Field today, the Phillies and Brooklyn Dodgers were engaged in a private feud that had Philadelphia fans pretty well worked up. The Phils, striving to knock the Dodgers out of third place, were within a half game of their goal, having beaten Max Carey's rank, 5 to 3, yesterday. Homers by Chuck Klein and Mickey Mallon were chiefly responsible.

The Boston Braves jumped Waite Hart for four runs in the fifth inning to defeat the Giants, 6 to 3, in the National League's only other encounter. Randy Moore's homer with two on was the body blow.

The Boston Red Sox enlivened an otherwise dull program in the American League by trimming Detroit, 5 to 4. Big Smokey Jolley caught for the Sox and knocked across three runs with a homer.

Lefty Grove marked up his 25th victory of the season as the Athletics defeated Chicago, 9 to 6. The Sox got the great southpaw for 12 hits, but gave him trouble in only one inning.

All other clubs were idle.

Lots of people wish the government would stop telling them where the per capita circulation of money stands and just hand it out and let them do their own counting.

Princeton Players Scrimmage Early

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 20 (AP).—"Fritz" Crisler can look upon the first day, at least, of his fall direction of the Princeton Tigers with satisfaction and considerable hope. He has a squad of 70 boys, last year probably the weakest major football outfit in the east. He has had them scrimmaging since their second day of practice, something unheard of previously in Nassau football.

Taking over the most thankless task on the eastern front, restoration of a football dynasty that had fallen from the mighty days of "Big Three" domination to the single victory at last year's campaign, Crisler, fresh from Minnesota and the power of the big ten, had made an impressive start.

Because of an agreement with Yale preventing fall practice before September 15, Crisler had to play down a schedule of six weeks' home conditioning for each player so that they would report at college ready to go.

Backs are his greatest need. Of the boys still available only Millard Draudt showed more than average ability last fall. He was the nucleus of a strong line from tackle to tackle, headed by Tremains Billings, captain and tackle, but he needs ends.

The schedule: October 1, Amherst; 8, Columbia; 15, Cornell; 22, Navy; 29, Michigan, November 5, Lehigh; 12, Yale.

SPORT SLANTS

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

Two names sure to be more conspicuous in the national tennis ranking list at the close of the 1932 campaign are Clifford S. Sutter of New Orleans, one of the finest of young American stylists, and Lester Stofen, the rangy Californian.

Both flashed sensation in the national championships at Forest Hills, especially Sutter, whose grandstand battle with Ellsworth Vines furnished one of the dramatic high-spots of the whole season.

Sutter has held national intercollegiate honors as a color-bearer for Tulane University. He first crashed the "first ten" in 1930 when he landed fifth place but dropped a notch in 1931 as his rise was checked. He bounded back up the ladder of prominence so rapidly on home courts this year that he will have to be considered with our internationalists in distributing the topmost places in the ranking list.

Wilmer Allison, who was only ninth on the 1931 list, also is sure of a much higher rating on the basis of his fine all-around record since spring, when he handed Vines several setbacks.

On the other hand, Johnny Doek, champion in 1930, will drop out of the first ten altogether and George Lott also will slip several notches below the No. 2 position he won last year.

The "first five" figures to be made up of Vines, Allison, Sutter, Frank Shields and probably John Van Ryn.

Which Helen First?
Another nice little problem left on the doorstep of the United States Lawn Tennis Association's annual meeting will be the matter of ranking California's two famous Helens—Mrs. Moody, the acknowledged world champion, and Miss Jacobs, winner of the national championship in the absence of the former Helen Wills.

If precedent is followed again, Mrs. Moody will not be put in the No. 1 position because of "insufficient data." She was left off the list under similar circumstances in 1930, when Mrs. Anna Harper of San Francisco, winner of the national title, was given the honor. Miss Jacobs, therefore, probably will gain the No. 1 position even though the honor is somewhat empty.

The U. S. L. T. A. was somewhat plucked this year by Mrs. Moody's failure to return for the American championships, after again sweeping the courts of Europe. Talk was heard of withdrawing official sponsorship of Mrs. Moody's future trips abroad, without some assurances of her return to attract U. S. gate receipts, badly needed in these Davis cupless times.

French Near Cup Mark.

One more triumph in the Davis cup matches for France, incidentally, will enable that country to equal the record of the United States in scoring seven successive victories. Tilden and Johnston collaborated in piling up the American winning streak, which lasted from 1920 until the downfall of the famous Bills at Montevideo in 1927. Since then France has successfully juggled her musketeers to withstand one British and five American challenges.

Wrestling Last Night

(By The Associated Press)
Camden, N. J.—Fred Grubmeyer, 205, Iowa, defeated Joe Montana, Camden (Montana hurt and unable to continue after 22:00).

Montreal, Que.—Henry Declane, 217, Montreal, won from Joe Malowicz, 202, Utra, N. Y. (Malowicz unable to continue after two falls were split).

Pittsfield, Mass.—Count Zarnynoff, 264, Russia, threw Karol Zhyzko, 198, New York, one hour, five minutes.

Snyder Company Wins Cup
Sagerties, Sept. 20.—R. A. Snyder Fire Company baseball also defeated the team representing the T. B. Cornwell Fire Company on Sunday on the local diamond by the score of 13 to 5. Both teams were tied for first place and Sunday's game was the deciding contest. A silver loving cup was presented by the Village Board of Trustees to the winning team.

Sutter Ranks No. 1 In College Tennis

Philadelphia, Sept. 20 (AP).—There will be few disputes over the ranking of Cliff Sutter at the head of the nation's college tennis players.

The Tulane star, whose brilliant season marked by his victory in the intercollegiate championship and by the magnificent battle he gave Ellsworth Vines in the national championships, was given the No. 1 ranking by the intercollegiate committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association yesterday.

Bryan Grant, Jr., of the University of North Carolina, was ranked No. 2 and Keith Gledhill of Stanford No. 3.

Gledhill and Joseph Coughlin were ranked as the No. 1 doubles team.

(By The Associated Press)
Smead Jolley, Red Sox, his homer with two on aided in defeat of Tigers.

Bob Grove, Athletics, beat White Sox, 5-6, for his 25th victory of season.

Chuck Klein and Les Mallon, Phillies—Their home runs beat Dodgers, Ed Brandt, Braves—Pitched steadily to beat Giants.
